awareness campaigns and workshops addressing the issues faced by the SC/ST students and has been successful in implementing various initiatives to address the specific needs and challenges faced them and enhance their academic performance and overall well-being of those students.

- 3) The committee has played a crucial role in disseminating information about various scholarships available for the SC/ST students. The Committee, by organizing awareness campaigns, workshops, and informational sessions, has ensured that the eligible students are well-informed about the available opportunities. The Committee assisted the students in the application process, provided guidance on documentation and requirements. This proactive approach has resulted in an increased number of SC/ST students availing scholarships, thereby easing financial burdens and fostering a conducive learning environment.
- 4) The result of this proactive approach is that a good number of the SC/ST students of RERFGI had various scholarships and received funds. This can be viewed as an important achievement of the SC/ST Committee towards supporting the SC/ST students financially.
- 5) The challenges faced by the SC/ST committee as discussed was the need for enhanced outreach programs to increase awareness, addressing persistent issues related to discrimination and bias and ensuring effective utilization of available resources.
- 6) The meeting finally ended with a vote of thanks.
